

BRAIN, BEHAVIOR, AND MIND

A CONVERSATION ON WHERE BRAIN, BEHAVIOR, AND MIND MEET NATIONAL SECURITY

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 23, 2024

VIRTUAL EVENT 3:00 PM EDT

REGISTER:

<https://www.amygdalaptsdconference.org/brain-behavior-and-mind>

GENERAL PAUL M. NAKASONE, U.S. ARMY (RETIRED)

Former Director, National Security Agency & Chief, Central Security Service

Former Commander, U.S. Cyber Command

Founding Director, Institute of National Security, Vanderbilt University

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

The Brain, Behavior, and Mind Lecture Series is a forum for audiences around the world to hear from distinguished speakers, whose work spanning neuroscience, psychiatry, psychology, and community has advanced our understanding of brain, behavior, and mind, and our ability to sustain mental health.

This virtual event will include a pre-recorded conversation with General Nakasone, followed by a live, moderated Question & Answer session with our featured speaker.

Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Traumatic Stress, Department of Psychiatry, Center for Deployment Psychology, and Brain & Behavior Hub of the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences.

Please contact us at contact@amygdalaptsdconference.org if you have any questions.